Twin towns

Meudon

Ciechanów might be considered as a town with much experience in co-operation with foreign countries. The first agreement concerning co-operation and partnership was signed in 1972 with a French town Meudon. Meudon is a beautiful town with 43,000 inhabitants, situated 9km south-west from Paris. Its history dates back to the Neolithic times. There are many valuable sights in the town, such as: the Rodin Museum, the house of Richard Wagner, the Observatory, the Hermitage Chapel. Several famous people had connections to Meudon, e.g. Madame de Pompadour, Le Grand Dauphin – the son of Louis XIV, Auguste Rodin, and Richard Wagner.

Forms of co-operation:

- sharing knowledge and experience relating to local administration, official visits,
- cultural exchange, concerts, participation in the Annual Christmas Fairs of twin towns, co-operation of artistic groups,
- exchange of sports teams,
- co-operation of schools – shared educational programmes.
